Sunday evening
Feb. 10, 1929.

Dear Far away daughter:-

It seems more than a week since we saw you. suppose you got my letter thought I would get ahead of you this time your bill and marks came this week. 88 room class 79 Grade 78 application 9. and department 100. Have you finished with your bookkeeping yet? We would of been down today but the Schendels went to Scranton and were not coming back for chores. Mrs Schendel has been up three times this week, not so bad. Pop Helen and I went to the Irving last night and saw Uncle Tom's Cabin, not as good as the regular play I saw years ago. Helen both laughed and cried she likes little niggas. Cora is
